5 Driving Suit Advertising and Identification

Section 5 does not apply to events occurring outside the US.

5.1 Driving Suit ID

At all rounds of the Cup where they are available, the Driver and Co-Driver are encouraged to wear the NASA Rally Sport and Cup breast patches on their driver suits as shown in Appendix A-4 of the GRRs. The NASA Rally Sport and Cup breast patches will be available to purchase from the Cup promoter prior to or at the event.

5.2 Driving Suit Identification of other Sanctioning Bodies

For promotional reasons no identification of any US based motor sports sanctioning body other than NASA Rally Sport may be visible on the driving suit. Covering other patches satisfies this Article.

6 Vehicle Advertising and Identification

No team in violation of Article 6 will be scored for stage times, event standings, or Cup points.

6.1 Vehicle Identification

Any advertising on competing vehicles other than that supplied by the organizer must not conflict with the car's official rally number so as to prevent recognition by Event Officials.

6.2 Competing Vehicle Identification of other Sanctioning Bodies

For promotional reasons no identification of US based motor sports sanctioning bodies other than NASA Rally Sport may be visible on competing vehicles.

6.3 Door panel requirements

Entrants are to provide one 12" high x 20" wide white space on each front door of the vehicle corresponding to space B2 as shown in Appendix A-4 of the GRRs. Additional materials may be supplied by which would also be mandatory.

6.4 Car Numbers

Each driver will be assigned an Annual Number based on their overall ranking in the previous year's Cup. One set of vinyl will be provided to the driver at the first ARC event they enter. In determining car numbers, any ranking ties will be decided by a die roll by the ARC promoter. Competitors who do not have an assigned Annual Number because they didn't compete the previous year will be assigned the next higher sequentially available number. These numbers will be used at all ARC events. A list of numbers currently assigned to Atlantic Rally Cup competitors will be available on NASARallySport.com. The competitor who receives number 13 has the option of keeping number 13 or accepting the next available highest number, leaving number 13 unused.

As no overall champion is crowned, for determining car numbers in future years, all points will be added together. Thus, a 2WD win counts just as much as an AWD win when coming up with a points total. The total is used for nothing but determining car numbers.

6.5 Preferred Vendor

Make It Stick Media is the preferred vendor of vinyl number sets for the series and has the correct templates and numbers meeting the specifications.

Place	Points		Place	Points
1	32		11	10
2	27		12	9
3	23		13	8
4	20		14	7
5	18		15	6
6	16		16	5
7	14		17	4

9	12		19	2

8.2 Starting Points

All entrants will receive four starting points for leaving the first time control of the event.

8.3 Which Events Count Toward the Cup

The Cup standings shall be calculated based on all rounds.

8.4 Points Multiplier

The multiplier for the events is based on the number of miles or days run. In general, each day raced counts as a round's worth of points: single day, single round, two days, two rounds, three days, three rounds. Depending on the scoring of the particular event, those points may be combined (for example, a single event spread over two days, counting for double points) or awarded separately (for example, a single points event on Saturday followed by a single points event on Sunday. Very short events (anticipated winning time under 45 minutes) will be awarded 60% full points. A "race day" that consists solely of a super-special-stage, even if run multiple times, does not count toward the number of days counted for rounds.

8.5 Procedure for Tie Breaking for Overall Champion

In case of a tie for the first position in the Cup, the tie breaking system is:

1. The competitor with the highest number of event finishes shall be declared the winner of the Cup.
2. If this fails to break the tie, the competitor with the highest event finishes by place shall be declared the winner. Most first overall, then most second overall, etcetera.
3. If this fails to break the tie, the competitor with the higher number of Cup events entered by the competitor in this calendar year.
4. And finally, competitors may mutually agree to flip a coin.

8.6 Cup Points Inquiry Period

Inquiries concerning points standings must be received by ARC Promotor within sixteen days of the points for that event being posted online or they will not be considered. This rule in no way effects the times and procedures of event result finality: it only is related to Cup points. This rule does not modify the abilities of the ARC promoter laid out in Section 4. Inquiries must be filed using the official Championship Inquiry Form available online.

8.7 Points Adjustment

The Cup promoter reserves the right to remove or alter points from the competitors as needed to satisfy issues relevant to the sanctioning body.
